

PROGRAMME

8.30: Welcome coffee and tea

9.15-9.30: Opening remarks

Régis Bordet (President, University of Lille): “more than the sum of its parts: experimenting with new institutional forms to boost research”

9.30-10.45: Panel 1- NeurotechEU as a platform for continued development in its member institutions

Chair: Thomas Estermann (EUA)

Keynote: Renaud Jardri, Coordinator of the "Cerveau, Société & Technologies" programme, University of Lille : “the recursive loop: from NeurotechEU to the “Institut du cerveau” at Lille University”

Round table:

- Pierre Laporte, Policy Officer, European Commission, DG EAC, Unit B.3, Transnational Cooperation in Higher Education
- Mark Vlek de Coningh, Secretary-general of NeurotechEU
- Daniel Minge, Manager of TRA Modelling, Bonn University

10.45 to 11.00: Break

11.00-12.15: Panel 2 “The role of universities in building European democratic resilience through transnational research”

Keynote: Juliette Sénéchal, Deputy-Head of the Social Sciences and Humanities at INRIA: “the European GPAI code of practice one year hence”

Round table:

Chair: Carle Bonafous-Murat (France Universités)

- Sandrine Chassagnard-Pinet, vice-president for research, Lille University
- Julien Talpin, research director at CNRS, scientific coordinator of the DemoCIS programme
- Representative of the Regional Council of Hauts-de-France

13.00 to 14.00: Networking lunch